

WCCMT Spa & Aesthetics Scholarship

The Spa and Aesthetics scholarship (Category 1) is awarded once per year to a student graduating from grade 12 and is seeking to gain additional skills and training by undertaking post secondary education, but does not have the full resources to do so. This award is meant to offset tuition associated with the recipient's efforts to attain higher education.

The select candidate is passionate about health and beauty, customer service driven and motivated to provide high quality treatments in a caring and professional manner to a diverse client population.

How to enter:

Step 1: Complete application form

Step 2: Write a minimum 300 word essay that outlines your education and career objectives. In addition you must be able to demonstrate financial need and supply a letter of reference from a non-family member supporting your application for the scholarship.

Step 3: Submit your application no later than July 30th 2012

One scholarship of $1500 will be awarded to the applicant who is deemed to best meet or exceed the above criteria. Applicants will be judged by the Admissions Committee and their decision will be final. The scholarship has no cash value and will be applied to the term two tuition costs. The scholarship can only be redeemed for the September 2012 intake and may not be combined with any other offers.
