A SESSION FOR K-8 TEACHERS

PLEASE JOIN US:

Please join us for another day with Adrienne as she presents more practical lessons to support your students' reading comprehension in the content areas. This session will begin with an overview of the key concepts of Reading Power. She will then focus on the last three Nonfiction strategies: Making Connections, Questioning /Inferring and Transforming your thinking (synthesize). Come to this session and leave with new lesson ideas, new book titles and a new "layer" to add to your reading program.

BIOGRAPHY - Adrienne Gear has worked in the Vancouver School district for almost 20 years as a classroom teacher, ESL teacher, teacher librarian and district literacy mentor. She is currently teaching part time in an elementary school in Vancouver. Adrienne developed and implemented Reading Power over 10 years ago at her school and has since been presenting workshop across the country. She is the author of two books: "Reading Power: Teaching Students How to Think While They Read" (Pembroke, 2006), and Nonfiction Reading Power: Teaching Students How To Think While They Read All Kinds of Information" (Pembroke, 2008). Adrienne lives in Vancouver with her husband and their two boys.
